Out of the R7 staff here, only one is an OSC with only 3 month experience and no COR cert. I asked Jhana and she's willing but she can until Friday and needs to go home for the weekend, then available on Monday. Let me know. She can drive from her current location to Durango so no need for lodging.

Subject: OSC availability?

Do we have an OSC currently deployed that could assist R8 at the Gold King mine? The OSCs that are currently assigned have to step away immediately. This would only be until Monday.
Thanks
